

CROSS THE LINE

I don't know why I'm here
But it's got me down on my knees
Wake me up in the morning
Cause it's the greatest gift from you to me

Life can't wait anymore,
We've got nowhere to hide
(But) like a bug on the floor,
We find the smallest, crack to hide!!

[CH]

Doesn't anybody see the middle?
Doesn't anybody cross that line?
Doesn't anybody see the middle?
Doesn't anybody cross that line?

When there's no where to go,
And when there's no one to believe in
Step by step take it slow,
Another chance for us to change our ways?

You keep telling me there's a problem
And you say life is just a lie
Some say there is no tomorrow,
So maybe we should live for today!

Life can't wait anymore,
We've got nowhere to hide
(But) like a bug on the floor,
We find the smallest, crack to hide!!!

[CH]

Doesn't anybody see the middle?
Doesn't anybody cross that line?
Doesn't anybody see the middle?
Doesn't anybody cross that line?

(solo)

[CH]

Doesn't anybody see the middle?
Doesn't anybody cross that line?
Doesn't anybody see the middle?
Doesn't anybody cross that line?
