

LEAVE

You take it, because it's free
The feeling, back to you and me
I'll tell you, that you can't decide
The feelin's, coming back to life

You ask yourself again, "Is this what I'm leaving?"
I'll ask myself again, will I go away?

The countries, seemed paralyzed
When you showed me, What you fantasized
You shake fate, like a jar of flies
Intentions, coming back to life

You ask yourself again, "Is this what I'm leaving?"
I'll ask myself again... come on!

[CH]

You take it!! It's not all right to leave
You feel it!! It's not all right to leave
You take it!! It's not all right to leave
You feel it!!!

(can be a little tricky now)

So salty are the words you preach
It's our fault we, couldn't last the week
I failed you, as you failed yourself
Impale me, put me on your shelf!!

Just shoot me! May be for the best
Just joking! But who know the rest?
There's no changing, (this) love suicide
Cause the feelin's, coming back to life

You ask yourself again, "Is this what I'm leaving?"
I'll ask myself again.....

[CH]

You take it!! It's not all right to leave
You feel it!! It's not all right to leave
You take it!! It's not all right to leave
You feel it!!! It's not alright to leave!!!
It's not alright to leave!!! Oh...
