

TOO LATE

Intoxication, seems to be our only freedom
We drink the days away,
Until we're higher than the sun

And you say,
that truth will never prevail
And you lie,
between the pages familiar faces decay

(PC)

I've tried to make that change
And I will try to make it again
It's hard to swallow...
Here we go again

[CH]

It's never too late . It's never too hard
It's never too late. When we fall apart
It's never too late. To fight the hunger
And break the cycle again

I close my eyes and drift into whatever
I can't hold on cause
I can't find my way back home... again

(PC)

I've tried to make that change
And I will try to make it again
It's hard to swallow
And here we go again

[CH]

It's never too late . It's never too hard
It's never too late. When we fall apart
It's never too late. To fight the hunger
And break the cycle again

(SOLO)

Never too Late! It's never too hard
It's never too late. When we fall apart
It's never too late. To fight the hunger
And break the cycle again
